Subject: v. [REDACTED]

I thought I had left a voice mail regarding this early last week, but since I have not heard anything about it I thought I'd try email. I received a request for a discovery packet for [REDACTED] with the following lab numbers: [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. Upon looking up these numbers, I noticed that [REDACTED] is a different defendant than the others [REDACTED]. Is [REDACTED] part of this case? Also, [REDACTED] is not listed. I'm guessing that that is because the result is negative, but if I am wrong please let me know. I just finished receiving some of the MS data from the Boston lab (the other chemist was on vacation for a couple weeks), so I should be able to get the discovery packet faxed to you in the next couple of days (I'm on call for a couple different courts tomorrow, so I can't promise you'll get it tomorrow). Thanks for the clarification.
